About the tutor: Teresa Costa Duarte

Teresa Costa Duarte is a Portuguese artist who likes to draw but painting in watercolor and oil is her passion.

Painting has been Teresa's passion since her youth, when she attended art classes at New Hall school, in Chelmsford, England. This helped her to develop different art skills and gave her confidence to follow art as a career.

After finishing her art A 'level, Teresa returned to Portugal, her home country. When she became a mother, she decided to create her own business of children's decorating articles. These handmade products were designed by Teresa, produced at her own little factory, and sold to all the best children's stores in Portugal, Spain and France.

In 2002, Teresa began taking drawing more seriously and joined art lessons in her hometown. Two years later she started painting and soon she was doing exhibitions and selling her own work.

Teresa is now organizing painting holidays in Portugal, where she hopes to create relaxing and enjoyable holidays for those who like painting or who are just beginning to discover the magic of it.
